

420 SS ACETABULAR REAMERS

Symmetry Medical reinforces its reputation for producing acetabular reamers with excellent cutting ability and longevity with the 420 SS Acetabular Reamer.

Advances in material and teeth design guided the development of the 420 SS Acetabular Reamer with unmatched sharpness retention, durability and cutting consistency¹.

- Increased durability and longevity
- Consistent cutting performance
- Efficient preparation of the acetabulum
- Exclusive material composition
- Twenty percent more teeth than the competition for improved reaming of the acetabulum
- Independent test data confirms 40 percent more durable than competitive reamers²

The trusted global source of innovative medical device solutions for today's needs and tomorrow's growth.
